

Lead Vocalist WANTED for

BIPOLAR BEARS

The Bears are Victoria's best known band of musicians living with mental illness. The band plays a range of classic rock covers and a repertoire of original material covering rock, ska, punk, reggae, blues styles. The Bears are a serious creative and working band, doing up to 60 gigs per year around Melbourne, Victoria and interstate as well as media appearances and recording projects.

WE WILL NEED YOU TO:

be a skilled and dynamic musician living with a mental illness

be available for weekly rehearsals on a Tuesday afternoon in South Melbourne be available for gigs throughout the year be able to work cooperatively as a member of the band

be able to manage the demands of rehearsal, gigs, etc

To find out more or to arrange an audition contact Cathy Horsley at the City of Port Phillip on 9209 6530 or email chorsley@portphillip.vic.gov.au

Check out the City of Port Phillip BiPolar Bears web page -

<http://www.portphillip.vic.gov.au/bipolarbears.html>

The BiPolar Bears myspace site - www.myspace.com/bipolarbearsmelbourne

The BiPolar Bears are supported by the City of Port Phillip's Access Arts initiative as part of a commitment to promoting arts participation opportunities for people who access mental health services.

